Makes Waves In The 'Lion City' This March!

Having had successful participation in various renowned international shows since its official launch in 2008, Singapore Mozaic will once again make waves in its home-ground this March with stunning showcases at the International Furniture Fair Singapore 2010/ 27th ASEAN Furniture Show.

Strategically located in Halls 5 and 6 at the Singapore Expo, there are a total of 17 participating brand ambassadors, who will be showcasing a wide array of cutting-edge and top-quality pieces ranging from classical to contemporary.

An industry brand led by the Singapore Furniture Industries Council (SFIC) and supported by government agencies, International Enterprise (IE) Singapore and SPRING Singapore, Singapore Mozaic brings together a group of successful furniture companies bound by principles such as agility in the workplace, vibrancy in furniture design and products, forward-looking business practices and transparency in the workplace. These Singapore companies offer a compelling proposition to both trade buyers and end consumers with its diversified production bases, strong fundamentals and superior offerings.
