Themed Asia's premier design-led sourcing platform, the fair offers an unparalleled outreach to the highly dynamic market through a multi-sensorial show experience that introduces technology, celebrates design and facilitates connections, and is expected to attract well over 20,000 international trade buyers and visitors from almost 100 countries.

ORGANISER Eugene Mok, Manager, Strategic Marketing and Communications, IFFS Pte Ltd

We're very pleased with the quality of the buyers that we've met at IFFS. It's unmatched compared to the other shows we go to. On top of that, we've had good footfall throughout the duration of the show, and not just on the first two days, so we are happy with the results!

EXHIBITOR Merijin ALTA, Sales and Back Office, Pure Home Collections, Romania

This is probably my sixth time to IFFS, and it's always nice to be back. The organisers constantly present a good show. A lot of the exhibitors have become familiar faces, and it is much like catching up with old friends here. I'm seeing more high-end interior designs this year, and I also hope to discover other types of décor during the rest of my time here.
